

THE THEMATIC

As our materials have an endless possible combinations and variations, in this "the Thematic" family we present our collections grouped by common features or by adding some new attribute that transform them in new collections.

THE THEMATIC

Ecological. Increasingly committed to eco-friendly materials, most of our collections can be offered with a cellulose backing support. Here a selection of natural fabrics and our iconic parchments laminated onto these sustainable celluloses.

Please contact us if you need any other of our collections laminated in Cellulose.

THE THEMATIC

Chiaroscuro, a variety of perforated designs, presented on different materials, that will bring great prominence and originality to the decoration of spaces. This range is based on collections already created by GPC Mares, to which value has been added through this innovative touch, playing with light and shadow.

Bellow the combinations presented in our catalogue, although the designs can be applied to many of our other materials and their different colors and transparencies so, you can make your own choice. The result is up to you!
